At the COUP DE STATE.

BURTON'S NEW THEATER.—TO-MORROW (Wednesday), March 10, will be presented, for the first time upon any stage, an entirely new and original five-act American Drama, entitled

THE COUP DE STATE.

The drama persons include the present Emperor of France,

LOUIS PHILIPPE, and the Queen of Spain, etc.

and his conductors of 1848, by which the French Empire was destroyed and the present empire declared, the achievement of which cost the lives of many thousand Frenchmen, the implementation of some 200,000 Republicans, and the exile of thousands others. One hundred and 10,000 were sent to the islands of Alizés and Cayenne for expelling the Republic against the imperialists.

The cast will include the celebrated and admiring artiste—Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. M. Brettell, Mr. and Miss E. M. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. A. Parker, as well as all the other members of Mr. Burton's great company.

The events at Paris of December, 1848; The secret meetings of the Republican Club; The attack on the Tuilleries; The assassination of Louis Philippe; The acts of the terrible fighting at the barricades, and other historical incidents of the period have in this drama been interwoven with a compelling tragic story of profound interest.

The drama has never before been dramatized. The subject, therefore, is offered to the many patrons of Mr. Burton's Theater as a new and exciting piece of fancy dress, and is surely to attract a large audience.

Now commenced the fun.

The comedians were requested to pick out their own property from among them, and those of whom cosasized, were invited among the cast.

One gentleman, dressed with his own wife several times, and not recognizing her under her disguise, made himself the very essence of politeness in waiting upon her, and the general opinion was that she was a lady of the highest rank.

Mr. Burton's wife, Mrs. Burton, was to be seen in the play, as the Mummy, Burton as Joe Baggs, Burton as Toby Tramp, the Traveling Tragedian, Burton as Madame Vandepierre, the Great Milliner.
